The Business Development Agency of the Ryazan region is an independent non-profit organization established by the Regional Ministry of Economic Development in 2020.

The key idea of the organization is to promote a comprehensive set of state and regional support measures available to representatives of small, medium and large businesses.

Experts hold consultations, trainings, supervise entrepreneurs in a wide range of areas, including assistance to first-time entrepreneurs and startups, increasing labor productivity and efficiency, developing export business, promoting products by means of organizing participation in exhibition and fair events as well as business missions to foreign countries.

State support for business, and specifically assistance to regional enterprises provided by the Business Development Agency of the Ryazan Region, largely encourages growth of the industrial capacity of the region.

Small and medium-sized enterprises, self-employed people, social entrepreneurs, and large businesses are among those who use the services of the agency.
